Next RAC meeting: Friday, October 12, 2018

Special note: There will be a board of directors budget workshop on Wednesday, October 17 that RAC members are encouraged to attend. The workshop was added this year to replace a series of budget-related presentations and ensure CAC, RAC and the board are receiving and commenting on the same information through the budget development process. More information on the workshop is forthcoming as we plan the agenda for that day. Please consider holding that time on your calendar as you would a RAC meeting.
